

VIDA VERDE CENTRO DE ESPAÑOL

Website Copy Deck

First Draft — For Review by Jeremy and Ongshak

Prepared by: Jeremy / Vida Verde Advisory · May 2026 · Confidential

How to Use This Document

This copy deck contains first-draft website copy for every page and section of the redesigned Vida Verde site. It is organised in the same order as the Website Redesign Specification (v1).

Items marked [VIDA VERDE TO SUPPLY] require original content from Rosa and Mateo and cannot be drafted here — they are flagged clearly throughout.

Jeremy: review each section and edit directly in this document. Track changes or leave comments where direction needs to change. Return the edited version to Ongshak before Phase 1.2 Figma work begins.

Ongshak: use this copy as-is in your Figma mockups. Do not wait for final copy — the structure and intent are fixed. Wording will be refined before handoff to development.

Editor's Note

The headline line break (“Learn Spanish Online. / One-on-One. With a Real Teacher.”) is intentional — it creates rhythm when displayed large. Adjust if the design needs it to run as one line.

The $12 price point in the CTA is a placeholder — confirm the exact discounted first lesson price with Rosa and Mateo before Phase 1.2.

2.2 Why Vida Verde?

	Section B
--	------------------

Section headline	More than an app. More than a freelance teacher.
Section subheadline	Here’s what makes learning with Vida Verde different.

Differentiator cards:

Card 1: headline	A Real School, Not a Platform
Card 1: copy	Vida Verde has been teaching Spanish since 1999. AECEE-certified, structured, and accountable — not a marketplace of strangers.
Card 2: headline	Expert Native Teachers
Card 2: copy	Every teacher is a university-trained Ecuadorian native speaker with years of classroom experience. Not a hobbyist. Not a part-timer.
Card 3: headline	Personalised to You
Card 3: copy	No fixed syllabus. Your teacher adapts every lesson to your level, goals, and pace — whether you’re a complete beginner or polishing your fluency.
Card 4: headline	Learn Anywhere
Card 4: copy	Classes via Google Meet. Real conversation, real feedback, real progress — from your living room, office, or café.

Editor's Note

Testimonials must come from Rosa and Mateo — they need to be real, attributed quotes from actual students, with specific outcomes (not generic praise).

Template for each testimonial: [Quote describing a specific result]. — [First name], [Country flag emoji]

Examples of the right outcome-focused tone:

“After eight weeks with Lucía, I was holding full conversations with my partner’s family in Guayaquil. I honestly didn’t think I’d get there that fast.” — Sarah, 🇺🇸 USA

“I needed Spanish for a job in Bogotá. Fernando built a programme around exactly what I needed. I passed my language test and got the role.” — Mark, 🇬🇧 UK

Collect at least 5 testimonials in this format before Phase 1.2.

2.5 Meet the Teachers

	Section E
--	------------------

Section headline	Your Teacher Is Waiting
Section subheadline	Choose your teacher and book your first lesson today. All our teachers are Ecuadorian native speakers with university-level training.

Teacher card CTA (each)	Book with [Teacher Name] →
View all CTA	Meet all our teachers →

🔗 Editor's Note

Each teacher card needs a 1–2 sentence teaching style description written in third person for the homepage card, and in first person for the full profile page (Section 6.3 of this deck).

Template (third person, homepage card): “[Name] specialises in [focus area]. Her/His lessons are [adjective] and [adjective], with a focus on [key approach].”

Example: “Lucía specialises in conversational Spanish for beginners. Her lessons are warm and patient, with a focus on building confidence through real-life dialogue.”

VIDA VERDE TO SUPPLY: one sentence per teacher in this style.

2.6 About the School (Short)

	Section F
--	------------------

Section headline	Teaching Spanish Since 1999
Body copy	Vida Verde was founded in 1999 by Rosa, a Spanish teacher with a simple belief: the best way to learn a language is through a real human connection. From our home in La Floresta — one of Quito’s most vibrant and welcoming neighbourhoods — we’ve grown to serve over 4,700 students from every corner of the world. Online and in person. Beginners and advanced speakers. Travellers and professionals. We’re proud to hold AECEE certification, a quality standard recognised across the Spanish-speaking world.
CTA	Our Story →
AECEE caption	AECEE-certified Spanish school

🔗 Editor's Note

The body copy above is a first draft based on publicly available information. Rosa should review and personalise — especially the founding story. Her voice and specific details will make this far more powerful.

If Rosa is comfortable being named and quoted directly, consider replacing the third-person narrative with a short pull-quote in her own words.

3.5 FAQ

Section headline	Frequently Asked Questions
Q1	What platform do you use for classes?
A1	We teach via Google Meet. You'll receive your class link by email before each session. No downloads or accounts needed — it works in any browser on any device.
Q2	What level do I need to be?
A2	None at all. We teach complete beginners through to advanced speakers. Your first lesson includes a level assessment so your teacher can tailor every class to exactly where you are.
Q3	How do I pay?
A3	Securely online by credit or debit card, Apple Pay, or Google Pay. Payment is processed at the time of booking — no invoices, no waiting.
Q4	Can I choose my own teacher?
A4	Yes. Browse our teachers' profiles, read about their teaching styles, and book directly with the one that suits you best. You can also ask us for a recommendation.
Q5	What if I need to reschedule?
A5	No problem — you can reschedule up to 24 hours before your class at no charge. Just contact your teacher directly or use the booking system. [Cancellation policy to be confirmed with Vida Verde]
Q6	Is there a contract or ongoing commitment?
A6	None. Your discounted first lesson is a one-time purchase. After that, choose the package that works for you — or pay per class. No lock-in, no pressure.
Q7	How long are the classes?
A7	Standard classes are 60 minutes. Some students prefer 45-minute sessions for intensive focus — speak to your teacher about what works best for you.
Q8	Do you offer group classes online?
A8	Our online programme is focused on one-on-one instruction — because we believe personalised teaching gets results faster. Group classes are available as part of our Quito immersion programmes.

Editor's Note

Pricing table data (1-week, 2-week, 4-week rates across formats) must come from Rosa and Mateo — current vidaverde.com pricing may be outdated.

The schedule section can be expanded with a day-by-day table if Vida Verde has a typical weekly schedule to share.

Adapt this template for Travelling Classroom, Puerto López, and Jungle Programme (if active) — the structure stays the same, the specifics change.

Fernando

	Draft bio — for review
--	------------------------

Bio (first person)	I've been teaching Spanish for over [X] years, and I still find it one of the most rewarding things I do. For me, the best lessons happen when a student stops thinking about grammar and starts just talking — that's the moment I know we're making real progress. I work well with students who want structure and also with those who prefer a more conversational approach. Whatever your goals — travel, work, or just the pleasure of speaking another language — I'll design a programme around you. I specialise in [specialisation areas — VIDA VERDE TO CONFIRM]. Outside of teaching, you'll usually find me [personal detail — optional, adds warmth].

Specialisations	[VIDA VERDE TO SUPPLY — e.g. Beginners, DELE Preparation, Business Spanish]
------------------------	---

Ximena

	Draft bio — for review
--	-------------------------------

Bio (first person)	I grew up in Quito speaking Spanish, and I've spent the last [X] years helping people from all over the world find their voice in it. I love the moment a student realises they've just said something complicated without stopping to think — that's fluency starting to happen. My classes tend to be warm, encouraging, and practical. I focus on real communication from day one, because I believe confidence comes from doing, not just studying. I'm particularly good with complete beginners and students who've tried other methods and found them frustrating. I specialise in [specialisation areas — VIDA VERDE TO CONFIRM].
Specialisations	[VIDA VERDE TO SUPPLY]

Lucía

	Draft bio — for review
--	-------------------------------

Bio (first person)	Teaching Spanish is something I came to naturally — I've always loved language, and I love even more the way learning a new one changes how people see the world. My lessons are calm, patient, and structured, with plenty of space for questions and real conversation. I work with students at all levels, but I have a particular soft spot for beginners — there's something special about watching someone go from zero to their first full sentence in Spanish. I specialise in [specialisation areas — VIDA VERDE TO CONFIRM]. My students often tell me that my lessons feel less like a class and more like a good conversation — which is exactly what I'm aiming for.

Laura

	Draft bio — for review
--	-------------------------------

Bio (first person)	I've been teaching Spanish since [year], and in that time I've worked with students from [X] different countries — each one with a completely different reason for wanting to learn. That's what keeps teaching interesting: every student is a new challenge and a new story. My approach is direct and practical. I believe in learning by doing, and my lessons are built around real conversations, real situations, and real feedback. I don't believe in making learners feel embarrassed about mistakes — mistakes are how we learn. I specialise in [specialisation areas — VIDA VERDE TO CONFIRM].
Specialisations	[VIDA VERDE TO SUPPLY]

Editor's Note

All four bios above are first drafts written to illustrate voice and structure. Each teacher should review their own bio, edit freely, and return an approved version before Phase 1.2.

Years of experience, university qualifications, and specialisation areas must be confirmed for each teacher.

A personal detail at the end of each bio (e.g. “Outside of teaching, I love hiking in the Andes”) adds warmth and humanity — optional but recommended.

7. Homestay Page (/homestay)

Page title (H1)	Live Like a Local. Learn Faster.
Subheadline	The best Spanish classroom isn't a classroom at all — it's a family dinner table in Quito.
Section: What is a homestay? headline	What Is a Homestay?
What is a homestay? body	A Vida Verde homestay means living with a real Ecuadorian family during your studies — not in a hotel, not in a hostel, but in a home. You'll share meals, conversations, and daily life with a local family who have been carefully vetted by our team. It's the fastest way to immerse yourself in the language and the culture at the same time. Many of our students tell us that the most valuable Spanish practice of their entire trip happened not in the classroom, but at the breakfast table.

Section: The offer headline	Spanish for Travellers
The offer body	Whether you have a week or a month, a few targeted Spanish classes can make a real difference to how you experience Ecuador. Our travel Spanish programme is flexible, practical, and built around you. Classes can be taken online before you arrive, or in person in Quito. Add a homestay with a local family and you’ll be practising around the clock. If you’d like advice on your itinerary, local recommendations, or help navigating Ecuador as a traveller, our team is happy to help. We’ve been in Quito for 25 years — we know the country well.
Section: TripAdvisor headline	What Travellers Say About Us
TripAdvisor note	[VIDA VERDE TO SUPPLY — TripAdvisor profile URL for badge and review excerpts]
Pricing note	There’s no fixed price for travel Spanish — it depends on how many classes you want, whether you’d like online or in-person, and whether you’re adding a homestay. Contact us and we’ll put together a custom quote.

9. Our School Page (/our-school)

Page title (H1)	A Family School. 25 Years of Spanish.
Subheadline	We started with one teacher, a love of language, and a home in La Floresta. Twenty-five years later, we're still here — and we've taught over 4,700 students from every corner of the world.
Section: Rosa's story headline	Our Story
Rosa's story	[VIDA VERDE TO SUPPLY — Rosa's founding story in her own words. 3–5 paragraphs. Suggested prompts below:] Why did you start Vida Verde in 1999? What problem were you trying to solve, or what did you believe about language learning that others didn't? What does La Floresta mean to you and to the school? Why has Vida Verde stayed rooted there? What's the moment you're most proud of in the school's history? What do you want every student to feel when they leave a Vida Verde class?
Section: AECEE headline	AECEE Certification
AECEE body	Vida Verde is a certified member of the AECEE — the Association of Centres of Spanish as a Foreign Language. AECEE certification is awarded only to schools that meet rigorous standards of teaching quality, curriculum structure, and student experience. For students, it means a guarantee: when you study with an AECEE-certified school, you know the teaching is professional, the methods are sound, and the experience is accountable. You can learn more about AECEE and what certification means at aecee.es.
AECEE link text	Learn more about AECEE →
Section: La Floresta headline	La Floresta, Quito
La Floresta body	La Floresta is one of Quito's most beloved neighbourhoods — bohemian, walkable, and full of life. It's home to independent cafés, art galleries, local markets, and some of the best food in the city. It's also one of the safest neighbourhoods in Quito for students and visitors, just 10 minutes from the historic centre and well connected to the rest of the city. When you study with Vida Verde, you're not just learning Spanish in a classroom. You're learning it in one of the most interesting places in Ecuador.

11.1 Lead Capture — Nurture Sequence (Tier 1)

Triggered when a visitor submits the lead capture form and downloads the free Spanish guide.

Email 1 — Immediate: Welcome + Download

Subject line	Your free Spanish guide is here 🇪🇸
Preview text	50 essential phrases to get you started — plus a little about us.
Body	Hi [First name], Welcome to Vida Verde! Your free guide — Survival Spanish for Ecuador: 50 Essential Phrases — is attached to this email. We hope you find it useful. We're a Spanish school based in La Floresta, Quito — and we've been teaching Spanish since 1999. These days, we teach students all over the world via Google Meet, one-on-one with expert Ecuadorian teachers. If you're thinking about learning Spanish properly — whether for travel, work, or just for the joy of it — we'd love to help. Have a great day, Rosa and the Vida Verde team

Email 2 — Day 3: Value Content

Subject line	The real reason most people never learn Spanish (and how to avoid it)
Preview text	It's not the grammar. It's something else entirely.
Body	Hi [First name], The most common reason people don't make progress with Spanish isn't the grammar, or the vocabulary, or the verb conjugations. It's this: they never get to practise with a real person. Apps are great for learning words. But fluency — the ability to actually hold a conversation — comes from conversation. And conversation means another person on the other end. That's the only thing we do at Vida Verde. One-on-one classes with a real Ecuadorian teacher, designed around you, at a time that works for you. If you've been thinking about booking a class, now is a good time. Your first lesson — which includes a level assessment and a personalised plan — is just $12. Rosa and the Vida Verde team

Email 3 — Day 7: Social Proof + Offer

Subject line	What 4,700 students have in common
Preview text	One thing. And it's not talent.

Body	Hi [First name], We've taught over 4,700 students since 1999. They come from different countries, different backgrounds, and different levels. Some start as complete beginners. Some arrive with a little Spanish from school. But they all have one thing in common: they didn't wait until they felt 'ready.' They just booked a class. [Testimonial — insert one outcome-focused testimonial here] If you'd like to be the next one, your first lesson is still just $12. No contracts, no pressure — just a conversation with a real teacher to see if we're the right fit. Hope to meet you soon, Rosa and the Vida Verde team

Email 4 — Day 14: Final Nudge

Subject line	Last thought from us (for now)
Preview text	We won't keep nudging you — but we did want to say one more thing.
Body	Hi [First name], We know you're busy. And we know learning a language always feels like something to start "next month." We just wanted to say: our teachers have limited availability, and spots for new students do fill up — especially around travel season. If you've been thinking about it, now is a good time. Your first lesson is $12, takes 60 minutes, and comes with zero commitment to continue. If this isn't the right time, no worries at all — you'll stay on our list and we'll be here when you're ready. Warm wishes from Quito, Rosa and the Vida Verde team
